

Stop and Watch

This information is about how you can check if someone you live with is sick.

You might see something change about them if they are sick.

On the next page there is a list of things that might change about someone if they are sick.

You can tick the box if you see the change in a person you live with.

When you tick the box it means yes.

Things that might change

They need more help to do things.

They talk less.

They are in pain.

They do not eat or drink as much as they used to.

Their weight has changed.

They seem

- Worried
- Angry
- Tired.

They do not understand things like they used to.

Their skin is a different colour.

What to do

If you ticked any of the boxes you must tell your

- Support Worker

- Carer

- The person who is in charge of your home

- Someone you trust.

Council for Intellectual Disability made this document Easy Read. CID for short.
You need to ask CID if you want to use any pictures in this document.
You can contact CID at business@cid.org.au.